

When we receive your application, we'll send you a certificate to cover the cost of all of your prescriptions

If you need prescriptions while vou're waiting for it.

pay for them and ask for an NHS receipt

(FP57). You can claim

a refund when your certificate arrives.

Remember to inform us (as well as your GP practice) if your name or address changes.

We'll send you a reminder when your certificate is due to expire. You'll need to speak to your doctor again to reapply.

Speak to your doctor to find out if you could be entitled to free NHS prescriptions.

If you qualify, your doctor will give you an application form for a medical exemption certificate (FP92A).

If you're not entitled to a medical exemption certificate, you need to pay for your prescriptions.

Otherwise, you could be facing a penalty charge of up to £100.

You could save money by buying a prescription prepayment certificate. Visit www.nhsbsa.nhs.uk/ppc to find out more.

If you have a low income, you may be entitled to help with your health costs through the NHS Low Income Scheme. Order an application form at
